NEW RELEASES

Rsi Radiotelevisione svizzera, nel suo mandato di servizio pubblico offre una varietà unica di documenti storici, testimonianze, interviste a figure di spicco del mondo politico, dello sport, dell' intrattenimento, così come documentari, reportage su fatti nazionale ed internazionali.

L'archivio RSI costituisce una parte essenziale del patrimonio culturale svizzero contribuendo ad arricchire un sempre più esteso database di contenuti audio-video.

Il mandato pubblico esorta inoltre a produrre ogni anno nuovi contenuti di elevato spessore culturale, in modo tale da coprire diversi generi: dai documentari ai reportages , dai filmati di animazione agli eventi musicali alle webserie, dando così la più ampia scelta possibile al pubblico svizzero.

La RSI s'impegna in prima persona a diffondere la " visione svizzera" all'estero attraverso la vendita dei suoi programmi e del suo archivio in patria e all'estero.

RSI Radiotelevisione svizzera, as public broadcasting service, offers a unique range of historical documentaries with eye-witnesses and interviews with prominent figures from politics, sports, arts and show business.

All of this are essential aspects of Switzerland's cultural heritage, contributing to an ever-expanding database of rich and varied audio-visual material.

We continue to develop and produce new contents every year.

Our programming covers a variety of genres including documentaries, reportages, animations, musical events and web series mainly tailoring to the interests of the Swiss public.

RSI also commits itself to expanding its swiss vision to the world.

TO PRODUCERS

Sappiamo che nel processo creativo di una nuova produzione può essere utile, talvolta necessario usare del materiale d'archivio. Spesso accade che questi processi di ricerca portino via molto tempo e risorse.

I nostri archivi televisivi hanno più di 50 anni di storia, di testimonianze, riprese che coprono una gamma vastissima di contenuti e temi e possono essere una valida alternativa agli archivi che siete soliti consultare o semplicemente un'opportunità in più.

La nostra iniziativa, nonché proposta a voi produttori, è quella di tenerci aggiornati sulle vostre future produzioni e tenerci presente ogni qualvolta abbiate bisogno di materiale di repertorio su un determinato tema o personaggio. Saremo più che felici di cercare nei nostri archivi quel materiale che può fare al caso vostro, che può essere il pezzo mancante del vostro film, documentario o serie...

Nel caso, dunque, abbiate bisogno di una ricerca approfondita su qualche tematica, inviate una email a salesoffice@rsi.ch e vi assisteremo volentieri in questo processo di ricerca, selezione ed infine, eventualmente, acquisizione.

In the creative process of a new production, you may be willing to use materials and footage that you cannot produce by yourself. Sometimes, looking for that special piece you would like to include in your next feature, documentary or series takes a lot of time and efforts.

Our archives are more than 50 years old and cover a wide range of content, ranging from films to documentaries, in various lengths and topics.

We would like you to include us in your research process by keeping us updated on your on-going and future productions, as well as any particular footage needs. We would be more than happy to see if we have anything that could be useful to you, selecting different content you may want to screen and eventually acquire.

Please, drop us an email to salesoffice@rsi.ch about what you are looking for and we will gladly assist you in this process.
